WNBA

Sports. It's not just a guy thing.

We are kind and thoughtful...the more sensitive of the two sexes, but bring the WNBA to town and all the rules go out the window. We are women and we can move down the court with skill and speed, shoot with great precision and paint our faces just like the guys. And when we need the most complete coverage of the Silver Stars and the WNBA, we look to the San Antonio Express-News. With the latest scores, game highlights and much more, the Express-News puts you in the middle of the action. So the next time a case of WNBA fever hits, back away from the "air horn" and reach for the Sports section.

PETER M. HOLT

CHAIRMAN AND CEO

Peter Holt may have been a season ticket holder for the San Antonio Spurs since 1988, but the start of the 2002-2003 season will stand out as a year of homecoming, a year when the team returned to an arena built for basketball -- and a whole lot more.

With the SBC Center providing a brand new home for the Silver and Black, Holt sees the new community venue as a great achievement for San Antonio and South Texas. Holt led the Spurs organization, in cooperation with Bexar County, the Coliseum Advisory Board and the San Antonio Livestock Exposition, through planning and completion of the building with "something for everyone."

Holt and his wife Julianna Hawn Holt, another Spurs shareholder, also led the effort to commission a $1 million collection of site-specific art for the SBC Center. The endeavor, an unusual marriage of fine art with sports and entertainment, is a first in America for such a venue. The Spurs organization funded the collection and the Holts, both avid collectors of art, sat on the selection committee.

The great-grandson of Benjamin Holt, inventor of the first crawler-tractor and founder of Caterpillar, Inc., Peter Holt is President and CEO of San Antonio-based Holt Companies. The firm, which still displays one of Ben Holt's early tractors outside its headquarters, owns the largest Caterpillar dealership in the United States.

Holt, a native of Peoria, Illinois, lived in San Antonio as a child, later moving to Corpus Christi where he graduated from high school. He then served two years in the U.S. Army during which he earned a Silver Star, three Bronze Stars and a Purple Heart from his one-year stint in Vietnam. He ended his military service as a Sergeant E5.

Several years later, after working on the West Coast, Holt rejoined his father in the Holt Companies in 1983. After four years the father and son purchased Holt Machinery Co. in San Antonio from another family member. The united business is headquartered in San Antonio, housed in a stylish building made of corrugated steel and featuring large windows and a sparse, clean-lined interior décor punctuated with numerous art works. The building is known officially as "The Barn."

Holt bought into the Spurs ownership in 1996 and became chairman of the board in July of the same year. He was at the helm in 1999 when the Spurs won the NBA Championship, the same year Bexar County voters overwhelmingly approved an initiative to build a new arena.

Proud of the franchise's commitment to the community, Holt is gratified by the many ways the Spurs organization gives back to South Texas. Among the projects are United Way, the Fannie Mae Foundation's Home Team Partnership that helps build or refurbish homes for purchase by low-income families, and the Spurs Drug-Free Youth Basketball League.

In recognition, the Spurs were named winner of the 2000 Pro Team Community Award presented by the World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame. The award recognizes the leader among professional sports franchises in basketball, baseball, football and hockey that best demonstrates outstanding community involvement and acts as a catalyst for community pride and spirit.

Holt himself has a longstanding history of community service, too. He is a former chairman of the United Way of San Antonio and Bexar County, a member of the World Presidents' Organization, a board member of the San Antonio Council on Drug and Alcohol Abuse and a trustee of the Palmer Drug Abuse Program.

Additionally, he is a board member of Free Trade Alliance - San Antonio and the San Antonio Economic Development Foundation. He also serves on the corporate board for JP Morgan Chase Bank, the board of Trinity University and is chairman of the board for Saint Mary's Hall, the school his children attend.

RUSS BOOKBINDER

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/BUSINESS OPERATIONS WNBA GOVERNOR

Russ Bookbinder serves as the Executive Vice President of Business Operations for Spurs Sports & Entertainment. Now in his 15th season with the Spurs, Bookbinder manages the day-to-day business operations for SS&E's three sports franchises; the Spurs (NBA), Silver Stars (WNBA) and Rampage (American Hockey League). He also serves as the Silver Stars WNBA Governor.

The Spurs have enjoyed tremendous growth in attendance, broadcasting, sponsorship support and community awareness during Bookbinder's leadership. During his tenure the Spurs have been one of the NBA's highest attended franchises; averaging 18,650 fans per game over the past 15 seasons.

The Spurs have been just as prosperous over the airwaves, establishing one of the most extensive broadcast programming operations in the NBA, which includes a regional radio and television network covering the South Texas area. Local TV ratings for Spurs game broadcasts have consistently ranked in the top five of the 29-team league.

Upon his arrival in San Antonio, Bookbinder created a community relations department and the non-profit Spurs Foundation, an organization designed to give back to the community. Since its formation in 1988 the Foundation has generated over $6 million in cash and in-kind contributions for area youth programs. In addition, he has worked with area school superintendents to establish several programs to motivate students in the areas of self-worth, attendance and drug and substance abuse education. The Spurs' Project GOAL received the 1994 Human and Civil Rights Award from the Texas State Teacher's Association and in 2000, the team received the Pro Team Community Award from the World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame as the top team in all major league sports in serving the community.

During the past five years Bookbinder has worked with the Spurs Management team to help design, build and open the new SBC Center, which seats 18,797 for basketball. He also played a major role in attracting and developing new sports franchises for the SBC Center. Two new franchises, the WNBA's Silver Stars and the AHL's San Antonio Rampage call the SBC Center home during its inaugural season.

Born and raised in Miami – and a 1974 graduate of the University of Florida – Bookbinder started his career in the sports business in 1976 as the Western Regional Manager for Professional Sports Publications. He has 22 years of experience in the NBA, serving in top management positions with the Dallas Mavericks, San Diego Clippers and Denver Nuggets. Prior to joining the Spurs, Bookbinder was the Director of Corporate Development for Raycom Sports.

Since coming to San Antonio, Bookbinder has been very involved in helping to enhance the sports industry in the Alamo City as a member of the Board of Directors of the San Antonio Sports Foundation. He played a major role in the creation of the Alamo Bowl and served as the president of the San Antonio Bowl Association in 1994. He continues to serve on the Bowl's Board of Directors.

In 1991, Bookbinder developed SAOne, Inc., the Spurs special event management company that has brought numerous NFL preseason, NCAA football and basketball events as well as NHL hockey to San Antonio. He was also instrumental in San Antonio's successful hosting of the 1996 NBA All-Star Game and served on the San Antonio Local Organizing Committee for the 1998 NCAA Final Four. Bookbinder has served on the National Board of Trustees for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and is a member of the Board of Directors for the San Antonio Greater Chamber of Commerce. In addition, he is a member of the Advisory Board of the San Antonio chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society and serves on the board of the American Football Coaches Foundation.

Bookbinder is married to the former Tammy Teaff, whose father Grant is the former Head Football Coach at Baylor University and is currently the Executive Director of the American Football Coaches Association. They have two children, a 16-year-old son, Josh, and a 13-year-old daughter, Jessy.

RICK PYCH

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/FINANCE & CORPORATE DEVELOPMENT/SPURS SPORTS AND ENTERTAINMENT CHIEF DEVELOPMENT OFFICER/SBC CENTER

In his role as Executive Vice President of Finance and Corporate Development for Spurs Sports & Entertainment Rick Pych leads all of the financial and corporate operational activities on behalf of ownership.

His primary focus since 1995 has been the Spurs new home – the SBC Center. Pych first brought the need for a new Spurs playing facility to focus to the Spurs' owners in 1995. Although the Spurs failed in 1998 in a bid to build a new arena in northeast San Antonio, the citizens of Bexar County passed a referendum in November of 1999 to provide public financial support for the construction of a multipurpose community arena that would be home to both the San Antonio Livestock Exposition and the Spurs.

Pych is the Chief Development Officer for the SBC Center and has overseen all aspects of the SBC Center project. He started on a development, financial and operating study for the SBC Center back in 1995. He has coordinated a team of architects and Spurs personnel since 1998 in formulating the design for the SBC Center. From July of 1999 through August of 2000, he led the negotiations with Bexar County, the Coliseum Advisory Board, and the San Antonio Livestock Exposition in finalizing the arena's development and operating agreement. Pych also negotiated a $90MM loan with a syndicate of banks which provided a funding source for the Spurs contribution to the project as well as refinancing existing franchise debt.

Pych also led the organization's efforts to bring the San Antonio Rampage to the SBC Center. In March of 2002, after four years of research, meetings and exploring countless options, Pych negotiated an agreement with the Florida Panthers to form a joint venture and bring their American Hockey League affiliate to San Antonio. On May 6, 2002, the AHL Board of Governors approved the team's membership application. Pych also represents the organization on the AHL Board of Governors.

From 1993 until being named Executive Vice President in January of 2000, Pych handled all accounting, tax, legal and technology matters as Chief Financial Officer for the Spurs. Additionally, his responsibilities included player salary cap, cash management and insurance issues. He continues to oversee these matters as well as the operations of the SBC Center.

Pych has 27 years of financial and business management experience. Prior to joining the Spurs, he acted as Executive Vice President of Finance and Marketing for the 1993 U.S. Olympic Festival.

As a member of the Board of Directors of the San Antonio Sports Foundation since 1989, Pych has been active in the organization's efforts to bring major sporting events to San Antonio including the U.S. Olympic Festival in 1993, the 1995 National Senior Olympics, the 1998 and 2004 NCAA Men's Final Four and the 2002 NCAA Women's Final Four.

Pych has a degree in accounting from Fairfield University. His wife, Marilou, is the Director of Finance for SONY Semiconductor Company of America. They have a 15-year-old son, Zack, who attends The Hotchkiss School in Connecticut where he plays football, hockey and lacrosse.

CLARISSA DAVIS-WRIGHTSIL

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER/ALTERNATE GOVERNOR

Clarissa Davis-Wrightsil serves as the Chief Operating Officer and Alternate Governor for the San Antonio Silver Stars. Now in her third year with Spurs Sports & Entertainment, Davis-Wrightsil manages the day-to-day business and basketball operations for the Silver Stars.

Davis-Wrightsil has spent the last three years working to create awareness and excitement about women's basketball in the community and was the driving force behind the effort of bringing the Silver Stars to the Alamo City.

Supported by the tireless efforts of the Spurs management, front office employees, basketball staff and coaches, the Silver Stars launched their inaugural season in the SBC Center in May 2003.

A San Antonio native, Davis-Wrightsil was a standout player at John Jay High School before moving up I-35 to Austin where she enjoyed an All-American collegiate career at The University of Texas. As a freshman she led the Longhorns to a perfect 34-0 record and the 1986 NCAA Championship, being named the Final Four Most Outstanding Player. She was recognized as the NCAA Player of the Year as both a sophomore and senior, winning the prestigious Naismith Award both seasons.

After graduation, Davis-Wrightsil continued playing professional ball internationally for seven years in Italy, Japan, and Turkey. In 1997, she returned stateside and played three seasons in the American Basketball League before joining the WNBA Phoenix Mercury team in 1999. In 1992, as the second-leading scorer on the 1992 Bronze Medal-Winning U.S. Olympic Women's Basketball Team in Barcelona, Spain, Davis-Wrightsil averaged 13 points per game and set the team record for 3-point shooting percentage. While playing for the United States National Team, Davis-Wrightsil was a gold medalist in the Goodwill Games (1986), World Championships (1986, 1994), and Pan American Games (1988).

Davis-Wrightsil has been inducted into the Texas Basketball Hall of Fame, the University of Texas Hall of Honors, the San Antonio Women's Hall of Fame, the San Antonio Sports Hall of Fame, and was named one of San Antonio Business Journal's 40 under 40 Rising Stars in 2001. In addition, she was named Southwest Conference Athlete of the Decade for the 1980's.

She currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Spurs Foundation and the Express News Community Advisory Board, as well as the USA Basketball Board of Directors. Davis-Wrightsil is also the founder of TEAMXPRESS Foundation – whose mission is to empower girls through sports by providing positive role models, encouraging literacy, goal setting and community volunteerism; and creating opportunities for girls to participate in basketball as a summertime activity.

Davis-Wrightsil and her husband, Jerald, have been happily married for 11 years.

CANDI HARVEY

HEAD COACH

San Antonio Silver Stars Head Coach Candi Harvey comes to San Antonio after spending the past two seasons as head coach of the Utah Starzz. She will be responsible for preparing San Antonio's newest team to begin play for their inaugural season in the SBC Center in 2003.

Harvey joined the Utah Starzz in 1999 as an assistant coach before taking over as head coach midway through the 2001 season. After assuming the head coaching duties, Harvey led the Starzz to a 14-5 record and helped Utah finish with a 19-13 record. The Starzz also made their first ever playoff appearance before bowing out to the Sacramento Monarchs in the first round. During the 2002 season - her first full season with Utah - Harvey led the Starzz to a franchise best 20-12 record and to the Western Conference Finals before being eliminated by the eventual WNBA Champion Los Angeles Sparks.

Harvey is no stranger to basketball in the Lone Star State. After serving one season as a graduate assistant with the Arkansas State Lady Indians basketball team in 1979, Harvey took on her first head coaching position at Robert E. Lee High School in Tyler, Texas. In her first season at Robert E. Lee, Harvey led the Lady Red Raiders to the first winning season in school history and made the state playoffs.

After four seasons at the high school level Harvey made the jump to the college ranks in 1984 accepting an assistant coaching position at Stephen F. Austin University in Nacogdoches, Texas. While at Stephen F. Austin, Harvey helped lead the Lady Jacks to four NCAA appearances, including the 1989 West Regional Finals.

In 1990, Harvey was named the head coach at Tulane University in New Orleans, Louisiana. During the 1993-94 season, she led the Green Wave to a 17-14 record and to their first ever postseason appearance in the National Women's Invitational Tournament (NWIT). In her four years at Tulane, Harvey posted a 46-68 record.

Harvey made her return to Texas in 1994 accepting the head coaching job at Texas A&M University. In her first season at Texas A&M, Harvey led the Lady Aggies to a 21-9 record and their first NWIT Championship in school history. The following year Harvey guided the Lady Aggies to 20-12 record while capturing the Southwest Conference Championship and earning a trip to the NCAA Tournament. In her four years at Texas A&M, Harvey finished with a 59-58 record.

In 1998, Harvey took another step in her coaching career as she made the jump to professional women's basketball taking the head coaching position with the Nashville Noise of the American Basketball League (ABL). On December 20, just 15 games into the season, the ABL closed its doors. From there Harvey moved to the WNBA, being named an assistant with the Starzz.

Harvey played four years of collegiate basketball at Ouachita Baptist University in Arkadelphia, Arkansas.

SILVER STARS STAFF

TAMMI REISS

ASSISTANT COACH

San Antonio Silver Stars Assistant Coach Tammi Reiss comes to San Antonio after spending the past two seasons along side Silver Stars Head Coach Candi Harvey as an assistant coach for the Utah Starzz. Reiss will assist Harvey in guiding the Silver Stars during their inaugural campaign in San Antonio.

Reiss joined the Utah Starzz in 2001 as an assistant coach and helped the team finish the season with a 19-13 record. The Starzz made their first ever playoff appearance that year before bowing out to the Sacramento Monarchs in the first round. During Reiss' second season as an assistant coach, the Starzz finished with a franchise best 20-12 record and advanced to the Western Conference Finals before being eliminated by the eventual 2002 WNBA Champion Los Angeles Sparks.

Reiss, a 1992 graduate from the University of Virginia, was selected by the Utah Starzz in the first round (fifth overall) in the 1997 WNBA Draft. During her career in the WNBA, Reiss averaged 7.2 ppg, 2.7 apg, and 2.3 rpg in 26.2 minutes per game.

In addition to her on-court success, Reiss remained active in the community, speaking and making appearances throughout the Salt Lake area. She has also appeared in commercials and two movies, "Love and Basketball" and "Juwanna Mann."

Prior to her WNBA career, Reiss served as an assistant coach at Virginia from 1993-96. In 1998, she established her own basketball camp and personal training business, Hoop Dreams, Inc. Also in 1998, Reiss spent the off-season as a member of the Utah Jazz Broadcasting Department.

While at Virginia, Reiss was named to the Kodak All-American team in 1992 and earned Kodak All-America Honorable Mention honors in 1991.

SHELL DAILEY

ASSISTANT COACH

This season will mark Shell Dailey's first with the San Antonio Silver Stars. Dailey, who spent the past four seasons as an assistant coach for the University of South Carolina Gamecocks, will join Head Coach Candi Harvey and Assistant Coach Tammi Reiss on the bench as the Silver Stars tip off their inaugural season in San Antonio.

Dailey is no stranger to working with Harvey on the court. Prior to joining the Gamecocks coaching staff, she served as an assistant coach along side Harvey with the Nashville Noise of the American Basketball League (ABL) in 1998. Before making the move to Nashville, Dailey and Harvey worked together at the University of Texas A&M where Dailey also served as an assistant coach on Harvey's staff during the 1997-98 season.

After the ABL closed it doors in December of 1998, Dailey joined the Gamecocks coaching staff. Over the past four seasons she helped lead South Carolina to the NCAA Tournament twice, including an appearance in the Elite 8 during the 2001-02 season. In addition to her coaching duties, Dailey was responsible for recruiting, scouting opponents, helping coordinate the team's marketing strategies and scheduling the team's community service appearances.

Dailey began her coaching career in 1992 as an assistant coach at Texas Christian University. The following season she was promoted to head coach where she guided the team for the next three seasons.

Dailey played four years of collegiate basketball at The University of Texas from 1981-85. Led by Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame member and Women's Basketball Hall of Fame member, Head Coach Jody Conradt, the Longhorns participated in postseason play in all four of Dailey's seasons. During her freshman year, the team reached the AIAW Final Four, losing to Rutgers in the Championship Game. Over the next three seasons, Dailey helped the Longhorns to two Elite 8 appearances and one Sweet 16 berth. During her collegiate career, the Longhorns won four Southwest Conference championships and never lost a conference game. Named as the team captain her senior year, Dailey also received numerous academic awards and graduated with a bachelor's degree in advertising management.

A native of McKinney, TX, Dailey was a standout high school basketball player at McKinney High School where she was named a Second Team All-State choice and a three-time district MVP.

JEFFERSON SWEENEY

DIRECTOR OF VIDEO AND TRAVEL SERVICES

Jefferson Sweeney joins the Silver Stars after spending the past two seasons with the Utah Starzz. Sweeney took over as Director of Video and Travel Services last season after serving one season as video coordinator for the Starzz. Sweeney coordinates scheduling of the Silver Stars' satellite systems used in scouting WNBA and collegiate games and assists with scouting and evaluating college talent for the WNBA Draft. In addition, he is responsible for all aspects of the team's travel.

Prior to joining the Starzz, Sweeney spent two and half seasons as the Utah Jazz video intern. He also worked part-time for two years (1998-2000) as an editor with KJZZ productions.

A native of Hamilton Ontario Canada, Sweeney graduated from Mesa State College in Grand Junction, Colorado in 1998 with a degree in Mass Communication.

KEVIN SEMANS

ATHLETIC TRAINER

Named the Silver Stars' Athletic Trainer in March 2003, Kevin Semans is responsible for the medical and health care needs of the players. Prior to joining the Silver Stars, Semans spent the past eight months in Salt Lake City, Utah, where he worked closely with former Utah Starzz athletic trainer Moe Forsyth and the rest of the team at the Bountiful Physical Therapy Clinic.

A graduate from the University of Tennessee in 1991, Semans is a certified athletic trainer. He has worked on a variety of levels from high school to the Olympics. In the offseason you can find him on the ski slopes of Brighton Ski Resort in Utah serving as a member of National Ski Patrol.

Seman and his wife, Julie, reside in Salt Lake City.

BREMOND "BAY BAY" MCCLINTON

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Bremond "Bay Bay" McClinton enters his first season with the Silver Stars. As the team's Strength and Conditioning Coach, McClinton is responsible for developing and implementing a strength and conditioning program suited for each player. McClinton also assists the team during pre-game warm-ups and injury rehabilitation.

When not working out with the Silver Stars, McClinton assists Mike Brungardt with the San Antonio Spurs strength and conditioning program.

A graduate from Texas A&I, McClinton is certified through the International Sports Science Association and the National Association of Speed and Explosion.

KRISTEN A. KOCUREK, M.D.

SILVER STARS TEAM PHYSICIAN

In her first year with the Silver Stars, Dr. Kristie Kocurek grew up in San Antonio and graduated from Our Lady of the Lake University. After completing medical school at The University of Texas at Houston in 1998, she headed north for the wild lands of Alaska to complete her Family Practice Residency at a University of Washington program.

Dr. Kocurek has competed in numerous sports throughout her life, including collegiate soccer at the University of Puget Sound, volleyball, softball, rugby, triathlons and adventure racing. Her love for sports and competition led her to complete a Sports Medicine Fellowship at the University of Texas Health Science Center in San Antonio. She has served on the medical teams of numerous high schools and universities, and has been the medical director of mass events from 5K runs to marathons. She enjoys caring for athletes of all ages and abilities, from weekend warriors to professionals.

Dr. Kocurek is Board Certified in Family Practice with a certificate of added qualification in Sports Medicine and is a member of the American Medical Society for Sports Medicine and the American College of Sports Medicine.

Currently, Dr. Kocurek practices sports medicine at the Orthopaedic Surgery Associates of San Antonio (OSASA).

PHILIP M. JACOBS, M.D.

SILVER STARS TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Philip Jacobs serves as a team physician for the WNBA San Antonio Silver Stars, AHL San Antonio Rampage, Senior PGA Champions Tour, World Wrestling Entertainment, UTSA golf team and several local high schools.

Dr. Jacobs is a board certified Orthopaedic Surgeon who is fellowship trained in both sports medicine and shoulder surgery. He is a partner of Orthopaedic Surgery Associates of San Antonio (OSASA).

Dr. Jacobs has a clinical faculty position at the University of Texas Health Science Center in San Antonio with the department of Orthopaedics. He is an active member of the board of directors of the Chip In Club, which supports and promotes UTSA golf.

ANDREW MONACO

RADIO/TV PLAY-BY-PLAY

Andrew Monaco, also known as the "Voice of the Silver Stars," joins the Silver Stars after spending the past four seasons as the radio play-by-play announcer with the former WNBA Orlando Miracle. Monaco also serves as the radio and television play-by-play voice of the AHL's San Antonio Rampage.

While in Orlando, Monaco hosted the WNBA's first-ever internet radio talk show "Miracle Courtside Conversation" and was the host of the Orlando Magic Radio Network. He also served as the television play-by-play voice for the Orlando Solar Bears of the International Hockey League and served as the sideline reporter during Orlando Magic telecasts.

Monaco's radio and television play-by-play duties have included men's and women's college basketball, college football and college baseball for the Sunshine Network and Fox Sports Net. He handled the play-by-play for the 2001 IHL All-Star game and hosted the "Mercedes-Benz Florida Golf Scene," an hour-long golf show that aired monthly on the Sunshine Net work. Prior to joining RDV sports, Monaco was the radio play-by-play announcer for the Orlando Cubs and Orlando SunRays baseball teams from 1990-1995. He was honored as the Southern League Broadcaster of the Year in 1993.

Monaco and his wife, Julie, have a son, Drew (7), and a daughter, Gina (4).

KRIS DAVIS

SILVER STARS IN THE COMMUNITY

A sports franchise is more than a collection of superb athletes – it is a partnership with its community. We all benefit when kids succeed in school, when we have an educated workforce, when families are strengthened, when neighborhoods are safe and when everyone takes the time and responsibility to make our community an even better place to learn, live, and work. Through our partnership with the Spurs Foundation, the San Antonio Silver Stars will help to create opportunities and enhance the quality of life for the San Antonio and South Texas communities.

The Silver Stars will connect with fans of all ages through extensive community and educational outreach. As we mark the seventh season of the WNBA and our first season in San Antonio, our players will be committed and dedicated to our community. The San Antonio Silver Stars are honored to be your friends and neighbors and will strive to be a catalyst for community spirit.

MIND. BODY. SPIRIT

The Silver Stars' Mind. Body. Spirit. program will focus on the following components – Healthy/Fit Families, Positive Self-Image, and Breast Health Awareness. The Silver Stars' Mind. Body. Spirit. campaign will consist of a series of "Shooting for the S.T.A.R.S." clinics addressing areas of self-esteem, teamwork, active-lifestyle, respect, and success.

Throughout the year, Silver Stars players, coaches, and personnel will conduct clinics throughout the San Antonio community. "Shooting for the S.T.A.R.S.", aimed at teaching youth basic elements of life, covers a variety of topics including manners/etiquette, self-esteem, nutrition and fitness, character values, resume writing, interviewing techniques, and other essential job skills.

BREAST HEALTH AWARENESS

The Silver Stars Breast Health Awareness program will focus on educating the public about the importance of early detection of breast cancer and on raising funds for the Alamo Breast Cancer Foundation, the American Cancer Society, Cancer Therapy and Research Center, Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation, Inc., and WINGS (Women Involved in Nurturing, Giving, Sharing, Inc.) One dollar from every ticket sold during the inaugural Silver Stars season will be divided evenly among the aforementioned area Breast Health Organizations. Each organization has already received a $10,000 contribution from the Silver Stars. Breast health information will also be distributed to fans during awareness nights and via nationally televised public service announcements.

Beginning in July, fans can also log onto WNBA.com to bid on their favorite item featured in the Breast Health Awareness Auction. All proceeds from these items, including games of HORSE with WNBA stars, All-Star memorabilia and WNBA autographed items, will benefit the WNBA's Breast Health Awareness partners.

SPURS/PIZZA HUT DRUG-FREE YOUTH BASKETBALL LEAGUE

In its 13th successful season, the Spurs/Pizza Hut Drug-Free Youth Basketball League, presented by Diamond Shamrock, offered nearly 20,000 at-risk girls and boys the opportunity to play basketball, improve their athletic skills and learn the importance of team work, cooperation, sportsmanship and discipline in a drug-free and safe environment. The non-school eight-week winter league is part of the Jr. NBA/Jr. WNBA program that targets youth ranging in age from 7 to 16 from less affluent city neighborhoods.

Spurs/Pizza Hut Drug-Free Youth Basketball League teams played at 75 locations, and were supported by 32 organizations throughout South Texas. Beginning in 2004, San Antonio Silver Stars players and coaches will make visits and participate in special events with the league throughout the year.

SAN ANTONIO NIGHT HOOPS

An extension of the Drug-Free Youth Basketball League, San Antonio Night Hoops, presented by the Spurs Foundation, is a summer basketball league designed exclusively for teenagers at selected San Antonio Recreation Centers. This program offers more than 900 teens an opportunity to improve their basketball skills and learn important life skills in specialized clinics while in a drug-free social environment. All members of San Antonio Night Hoops are also members of the Jr. NBA/Jr.WNBA. Throughout the summer, Silver Stars players, coaches, and personnel will make visits to the Night Hoops' sites to assist with the life skills clinics and to emphasize the importance of being and staying drug, alcohol, and tobacco free.

READ TO ACHIEVE

Through the WNBA's exciting initiative devoted to children's literacy—READ TO ACHIEVE— the Silver Stars will unite their leading assets to promote the value of reading and online literacy, as well as encourage families and adults to read regularly with young children.

Here in San Antonio, the Silver Stars will implement READ TO ACHIEVE through our educational programming, read aloud events with Silver Stars players and coaches, Silver Stars home game programming and free book donations. It is especially important for San Antonio to embrace literacy, as the 2002 National Adult Literacy Survey reports that 58% of San Antonio's population is functionally illiterate.

THE SILVER STARS HAVE READING ALL-STARS

The following members of the San Antonio community have lent their support to READ TO ACHIEVE and will be a part of the 2002-03 All-Star Reading Team: Chief Operating Officer of the Silver Stars Clarissa Davis-Wrightsil, Silver Stars Head Coach Candi Harvey, Silver Stars players, San Antonio City Manager Terry Brechtel, Paralympic Gold-Medal Athlete Ross Davis, San Antonio Mayor Ed Garza, World Champion Boxer James Leija, Bexar County Sheriff Ralph Lopez, San Antonio Chief of Police Albert Ortiz, Bexar County Judge Nelson Wolff, Spurs forward Tim Duncan and his wife Amy, Spurs center David Robinson, Spurs guard Steve Smith and his wife Millie, the Spurs Silver Dancers, the Coyote, members of the Spurs Sports and Entertainment staff, and Chairman and CEO of Spurs Sports and Entertainment Peter Holt.

FREE BOOKS

Each year, the Spurs Foundation partners with Scholastic, Inc. to donate thousands of books to emergent readers. This literacy partnership reinforces the Silver Stars message of READ TO ACHIEVE!

SILVER STARS BOOK BASKETS

At selected home games, Silver Stars "Book Baskets" will open for young fans with thousands of new books being distributed this season.

SILVER STARS PLAYERS SHARE THEIR FAVORITE BOOKS

During the 2003 WNBA season, Silver Stars players will host on court book exchanges with children randomly selected from the fans at various home games. Each child selected to participate in these on-court book exchanges will receive from the Stars' player, an autographed copy of a player's favorite childhood book.

WELLS FARGO HIGH FIVE READERS

An exciting four-week reading challenge rewarded first through fifth graders with great prizes, including 2,500 Silver Stars, Spurs, and Rampage tickets. Designed to challenge students to develop good reading habits, students competed individually and as a class in this well-received school-year challenge.

CHARACTER CHAMPIONS

New this season, "Tim Duncan's Character Champions" will recognize children who demonstrate integrity, respect, dependability, fairness, caring and civic responsibility. Teaching children to embrace responsible behavior is the goal of this program that is laden with incentives. More than 3,000 students will earn tickets to Silver Stars, Spurs, and Rampage games or to SeaWorld as well as t-shirts and achievement certificates.

REACHING OUT TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

The Silver Stars Care...

- Annually, Spurs Sports and Entertainment and the Spurs Foundation support more than 1,800 different area organizations with in-kind or cash contributions. These in-kind donations (tickets, autographed memorabilia, appearances, etc.) are used to raise thousands of dollars for charitable causes in the San Antonio area.

- Since its inception in 1988, the nonprofit Spurs Foundation has donated more than $6 million in cash and in-kind contributions to deserving South Texas children through organizations that provide basic, recreational, and medical needs.

- The Silver Stars' educational outreach programs range in scope to address those issues rated most important by local professionals. As part of our Read To Achieve and Mind. Body. Spirit. initiatives, these programs focus on student literacy, character education, positive self image, healthy and fit families, and basic life skills.

- More than 110,000 incentives, which include books, tickets, certificates, scholarships, t-shirts, and player visits are distributed through the Spurs Sports and Entertainment education programs each year to inspire a myriad of student achievements.

THE SPURS FOUNDATION

Created in 1988, the nonprofit 501(c)(3) Spurs Foundation was established to generate goodwill and financial support for economically, emotionally and/or physically disadvantaged youth in South Texas. The Spurs Foundation's volunteer board includes fans, community leaders, former Spurs players and representatives from the corporate and civic sectors.

SPURS
FOUNDATION

Since its inception in 1988, the nonprofit Spurs Foundation has donated more than $6 million in cash and in-kind contributions to deserving South Texas children. During the 2001-02 season, the Spurs Foundation donated $700,000 in cash toward youth programming, grants, scholarships and community tickets.

Annually, proceeds from fundraising efforts enable the Spurs Foundation to:

- Donate more than 18,000 Silver Stars, Rampage, and Spurs game tickets to underserved youth

- Ensure that nearly 20,000 youth participate in the Spurs/Pizza Hut Drug-Free Youth Basketball League, presented by Diamond Shamrock

- Fund over $50,000 in scholarships to area high school seniors

- Invest more than $100,000 in programming to benefit area youth

- Donate more than 10,000 books to Bexar County youth

- Team with the Tim Duncan Foundation to recognize children who demonstrate integrity, respect, dependability, fairness, caring and civic responsibility through Tim Duncan's Character Champions

2002 SEASON NOTES

2002 RECAP: The 2002 season was the most successful in Utah Starzz history. Utah went on two four-game winning streaks during the season, helping propel them to their first 20-win season in franchise history. The Starzz also tied the franchise record for most wins at home, going 12-4 at the Delta Center. The Starzz concluded their historic 2002 season on August 12 at home with an 81-79 win over the Sacramento Monarchs, ending with a 20-12 record. Finishing the season in third place in the Western Conference, the Starzz went on to defeat the four-time WNBA Champion Houston Comets in the first round of the playoffs, sending them to the Western Conference Finals for the first time. The Los Angeles Sparks clinched the series in L.A., defeating the Starzz on Aug. 24. The Starzz also had two players earn a spot on the 2002 All-Star Team. Marie Ferdinand and Adrienne Goodson represented the team in Washington D.C. during All-Star Weekend. Natalie Williams etched her name into the WNBA record books as she became the first player to record a 20-20 game, scoring 22 points and grabbing 20 boards against Sacramento on 6/22.

CLOSE CALLS: In 2002 the Starzz played in 10 games that were decided by 10 points or less...Utah was 7-3 in those games...the Starzz defeated the Minnesota Lynx 79-75 in OT on 5/25 before handing the Portland Fire a 69-64 loss on 5/30...Phoenix handed Utah a 66-71 loss on 6/1, but the Starzz bounced back to defeat the Charlotte Sting 69-64 on 6/8 and the Seattle Storm 71-68 on 6/9...the Starzz dropped a three-point decision to New York 68-71 on 6/11...Utah was able to get past the Fire 86-83 on 6/25 and battled the Miami Sol to an 81-76 win in OT...Utah fell to the Los Angeles Sparks 86-90 on 8/4, but closed out the regular season on a winning note defeating Sacramento 81-79.

BRINGING THE OFFENSE: The Starzz finished the 2002 season ranked second in the league in points per game (75.6 ppg), third in the league in field goal percentage (.441, 843-1911) and fifth in the WNBA in three-point shooting (.360, 89-247).

SHOOTING THE LIGHTS OUT: The Starzz shot above 50.0 percent six times in the 2002 season and posted a 6-0 recorded in those games...Utah connected on 60.4 percent (29-48) of its shots at Indiana on 7/10 to win the game 82-69...the Starzz shot .509 (28-55) vs. Minnesota on 7/5 to win 87-56...Utah hit 58.8 percent (30-51) of its shots at Cleveland on 6/30 for a 79-62 win...the Starzz shot .536 (30-56) at Seattle on 6/9 to defeat Seattle 71-68...in Washington on 7/20, the Starzz hit 51.8 percent (29-56) of their shots for an 83-73 win over the Mystics...Utah's last great shooting effort came against Portland on 8/4 when the Starzz connected on 55.2 percent (28-58) of their shots to win 82-69.

CRASHING THE BOARDS: The Starzz were a rebounding machine during the 2002 season...Mardo Dydek ranked third in the league pulling down 8.7 rpg while former Starzz forward Natalie Williams placed fifth in the league with 8.2 rpg...as a team Utah ranked third overall in rebounding (33.4 rpg), second in defensive rebounding (22.5 rpg) and third in offensive rebounding (10.8 rpg).

DE-FENSE...DE-FENSE: When the Starzz held their opponents under 70 points in 2002 they had a perfect 12-0 record...Utah was a perfect 14-0 when holding their opponents under 40.0 percent shooting from the floor.

GET THAT OUT OF HERE: Utah finished the 2002 season ranked first in the league with 5.56 blocks per game...a member of the Starzz has led the league in blocked shots in each of the WNBA's six year existence...in 1997 Elena Baranova led the league in blocks while Margo Dydek has led the WNBA in blocked shots the past five seasons.

STARS HISTORY

KEY DATES IN SILVER STARS HISTORY

OCTOBER 30, 1996
Salt Lake City is one of eight cities selected as one of the WNBA's charter franchises to begin operations in 1997.

JUNE 21, 1997
Utah made its basketball debut when they hosted the Sacramento Monarchs at the Delta Center. The opening night lineup included Wendy Palmer, Deborah Carter, Karen Booker, Lady Hardmon and Tammi Reiss. The Monarchs handed the Starzz a 70-60 loss. Utah recorded its first win in franchise history two nights later, beating the L.A. Sparks 102-89.

JULY 11, 1999
Natalie Williams became the first Utah player to earn WNBA Player of the Week Honors for the period ending July 11.

JULY 7, 2001
Margo Dydek put on a record breaking performance, as she notched the first triple double in Starzz history and only the second triple double in WNBA history with 12 points, 11 rebounds and 10 blocked shots. Her 10 blocked shots also broke her own WNBA record of nine that was set on Aug. 6, 1998.

JUNE 22, 2002
Natalie Williams etched her name into the WNBA record books as she became the first player to record a 20-20 game, scoring 22 points and grabbing 20 boards against Sacramento.

JANUARY 29, 2002
Spurs Sports & Entertainment (SS&E) receives word from the WNBA that they are assured a team in 2003.

MARCH 18, 2002
WNBA in S.A. 2003 campaign kicks off with the goal of reaching 6,000 season ticket deposits by Nov. 15, 2002.

NOVEMBER 13, 2002
SS&E announces they have reached the 6,000 ticket deposit goal and has secured a WNBA team for play in 2003.

DECEMBER 5, 2002
SS&E learns that the Utah Starzz will relocate to San Antonio to begin play in 2003.

DECEMBER 18, 2002
Candi Harvey is named the first head coach in team history.

JANUARY 10, 2003
SS&E changes the name of its WNBA team to the San Antonio Silver Stars.

FEBRUARY 19, 2003
The San Antonio Silver Stars unveil their new logo.

APRIL 25, 2003
Coretta Brown becomes the first player drafted by the San Antonio Silver Stars with the 11th overall pick in the 2003 WNBA Draft.

HISTORY OF THE WNBA

On April 24, 1996, women's basketball announced "We Got Next" as the NBA Board of Governors approved the concept of a Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) to begin play in June 1997.

Since that day in 1996 there have been many firsts for the WNBA: Val Ackerman -- the first president of the WNBA; Sheryl Swoopes -- the first player signed to the WNBA; Cynthia Cooper -- the league's first Most Valuable Player; the Houston Comets -- the first WNBA Champions; Lisa Leslie -- the first WNBA player to dunk.

However, the very first for the league was a "to-do list." With less than 15 months to tipoff, a league of its own began to unfold for the WNBA as each task was completed. The history of the WNBA follows:

On the Air . . .
Before a player was signed or a staff member was in place, the league announced its broadcast partnerships with NBC, ESPN and Lifetime Television. It was decided that the WNBA season would be played in the summer when the sports calendar was less crowded and the games could be televised live. During a successful inaugural season, more than 50 million viewers watched WNBA games on the three networks.

ESPN2 joined NBC and ESPN to televise WNBA games beginning in 2001 and carried live coverage of the WNBA Draft. Lifetime, which had carried games during the first four seasons, continued as a partner, presenting Players' Journal, a weekly half-hour magazine show highlighting the on and off-court lives of the league's players and coaches.

Oxygen Media signed on to televise WNBA games in 2002, and ABC Sports became a new partner through a six-year agreement that extended the WNBA's national television coverage through 2008, its 12th season. Telemundo, the fastest growing Spanish language television network in the U.S., and NBA TV, the league's 24-hour television network, also joined ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and Oxygen to carry WNBA games beginning in 2003.

WNBA games and programming reached the largest global audience since the league's inception in 2002, with WNBA content broadcast to 178 countries in 24 languages. The league delivers an audience unique in sports. In-arena, gender breakdown is approximately 80-20 female-male. The TV audience is about 50-50 female-male, with a strong percentage of non-adult viewers.

The Players and the Teams. . .
The first of the player signings was announced on October 23, 1996, with Sheryl Swoopes and Rebecca Lobo joining the league. The duo was soon followed by Lisa Leslie, Ruthie Bolton, Cynthia Cooper, Michele Timms (the first international player) and many more WNBA hopefuls.

Eight teams were announced for the league's inaugural season. The Eastern Conference consisted of the Charlotte Sting, Cleveland Rockers, Houston Comets and New York Liberty while the Western Conference was comprised of the Los Angeles Sparks, Phoenix Mercury, Sacramento Monarchs and Utah Starzz.

On April 29, 1999, the WNBA and the Women's National Basketball Players Association (WNBPA) announced the league's first collective bargaining agreement – a first of its kind in women's team sports. By 2002, the league had expanded to 16 teams, with the Detroit Shock and Washington Mystics joining the league in 1998, the Minnesota Lynx and Orlando Miracle in 1999, and the Indiana Fever, Miami Sol, Portland Fire and Seattle Storm in 2000.

The 2002 season saw 176 women play professional basketball in 256 regular-season WNBA games (schedule history: 34 games in 2003; 32 games from 1999-2002; 30 in 1998; 28 in 1997). Continuing to showcase talented stars from around the world, the league featured 45 players from 22 countries.

In October 2002, the NBA Board of Governors voted to restructure the WNBA to allow individual team ownership, and to allow teams to be owned by non-NBA owners and located in non-NBA markets. Orlando, Miami, Portland and Utah elected not to assume ownership of their teams, and in December, the WNBA announced the relocation of the Utah Starzz to San Antonio, which had previously been awarded a WNBA franchise. The team would be named the Silver Stars.

On January 28, 2003, the Connecticut Sun became the newest WNBA franchise, with the Mohegan Sun becoming the first non-NBA owner in league history. With 14 teams in place for the 2003 season, the WNBA was set to enter its seventh season as the leading women's professional basketball league in the world.

The WNBA Draft . . .
The Comets selected Tina Thompson, the Pac-10 Conference's leading scorer, with the first pick of the Inaugural WNBA Draft. Margo Dydek, a 7-2 center from Poland, was selected first in the 1998 Draft by the Starzz, and two-time Associated Press Women's Basketball Player of the Year Chamique Holdsclaw was the Washington Mystics' No. 1 selection in the 1999 Draft. In 2000, the Cleveland Rockers selected Ann Wauters from Belgium as the first overall pick, and Australian Olympian Lauren Jackson went to the Seattle Storm with the No. 1 selection in 2001. In 2002, National Player of the Year Sue Bird was selected by Seattle, who had the top pick for the second consecutive year by virtue of the WNBA's first Draft Lottery, held in New York on November 13, 2001.

HISTORY OF THE WNBA

The Logos and the Uniforms . . .
With players and teams in place, the league began its next task of creating logos and uniforms. The red, white and blue official WNBA logo – "Logo Woman" – was selected from about 50 different designs. After developing an extensive list of choices, the team names were selected by the league and the teams based on numerous factors, including: a tie to the NBA team name in that market, a link to a key characteristic of each city or state and/or the creation of a name fitting the current sports landscape. The uniforms also underwent several designs, and on May 21, 1997, the WNBA unveiled the team uniforms -- two shorts silhouettes and three jerseys.

It's a Ball Game . . .
The WNBA game consists of a 30-second shot clock, a 19-foot, 9-inch three-point line, two 20-minute halves, eleven-player rosters and a collegiate-regulation size ball. The WNBA's signature orange-and-oatmeal basketball by Spalding is 28.5 inches in circumference and one inch smaller than the NBA's regulation ball. In January 2003, Spalding Sports Worldwide and the WNBA announced the Spalding WNBA Infusion basketball, featuring a built-in, dual action Micro Pump®, as the new official game ball of the league beginning in the 2003 season.

Millions of Fans Join In . . .
The inaugural WNBA season tipped off on June 21, 1997, with the New York Liberty taking on the Los Angeles Sparks at the Great Western Forum in Inglewood, Calif. A crowd of 14,284 watched as Sparks guard Penny Toler scored the first basket in WNBA history. The Liberty defeated the Sparks 67-57. Then on August 22, the WNBA league attendance surpassed the 1 million mark at America West Arena in Phoenix. In 2001, the WNBA welcomed its 10 millionth fan on September 1 at the STAPLES Center in Los Angeles. In 2002, more than 2.5 million fans attended WNBA games for the second straight year, as regular-season attendance averaged more than 9,000 fans for the sixth straight season.

Fans Get Connected . . .
In addition to television, the league website, WNBA.com, is an important tool in reaching fans. The single most authoritative source of information for the league offers WNBA fans around the world late-breaking league news, real-time scores, statistics and shot charts, as well as complete behind-the-scenes access, live chats with WNBA players and personalities, expert analysis from WNBA insiders, and exclusive Web-based shows and programs.

In the Community . . .
For the WNBA, the focus has been on three primary outreach initiatives: Read to Achieve, a year-round, league-wide initiative that promotes the value of reading and on-line literacy and encourages families and adults to read regularly with young children; the Breast Health Awareness program, an initiative designed to draw national attention to the issue of breast cancer and the importance of early detection; and the Jr. NBA and Jr. WNBA, a support organization for recreational youth basketball leagues that connects players, parents and coaches in an effort to heighten awareness and participation in youth basketball. In 2003, the WNBA will debut its Mind. Body. Spirit. campaign, which encompasses the Breast Health Awareness program but also focuses on Nutrition, Exercise and Positive Self-Image, designed to educate and inform women and their families on the value of being active and eating well in order to feel better, have energy and develop a good healthy lifestyle.

League Showcases All-Stars . . .
On July 14, 1999, the league held the Inaugural WNBA All-Star Game at Madison Square Garden in New York, televised live on ESPN. The capacity crowd of 18,649 witnessed the incredible sportsmanship, teamwork, enthusiasm, fan involvement and in-arena excitement that characterizes the WNBA. The Western Conference All-Stars – led by the game's Most Valuable Player and Los Angeles Sparks center Lisa Leslie – defeated the Eastern Conference 79-61.

All-Star excitement continued in 2000 as the game moved to the America West Arena in Phoenix on July 17. The West All-Stars defeated the East All-Stars 73-61 before a crowd of 17,717 as Houston's Tina Thompson captured MVP honors. Leslie earned her second All-Star MVP award at the 2001 WNBA All-Star Game, played at the TD Waterhouse Centre in Orlando, Fla., on July 16 in front of 16,906 fans. The West claimed its third victory with an 80-72 defeat of the East. The 2002 WNBA All-Star Game was played on Monday, July 15 in Washington, D.C., at the MCI Center. The West All-Stars defeated the East All-Stars 81-76 in front of a crowd of 19,487, with Leslie earning MVP honors for the third time. ESPN televised the game live for the fourth consecutive year.

In 2003, the WNBA All-Star Game will mark its fifth anniversary with a return to Madison Square Garden on Saturday, July 12. The event will be held on the weekend for the first time and make its network television debut on ABC.

We Got Game . . .
Women's basketball has come a long way since its beginnings in 1892 when Senda Berenson adapted James Naismith's basketball rules for women. And with the continued growth of the WNBA, the sport is sure to go even further. For more information on the WNBA and its history, log onto http://www.wnba.com.

SBC CENTER

San Antonio's new SBC Center officially opened its doors in Fall 2002 following weeks of special events ranging from a festive community day to blessing of the building.

The multi-purpose community building -- a joint project of the Spurs, Bexar County, San Antonio Livestock Exposition and the Coliseum Advisory Board -- brings San Antonio and South Texas wide-ranging sports and entertainment capabilities, all built into the center's plan. With various seating configurations, it can accommodate anywhere from 2,000 to 18,500 patrons.

Opportunities for the SBC Center -- heavily booked before it even opened -- include basketball, rodeo, ice shows, concerts, hockey, motor cross rallies and more. And regardless of the type of event, the audience enjoys the very latest in technology for sound, visual effects, interactive activities and visual access.

Built in what architects call "ranch tech" style, the SBC Center is styled to present a sense of place, both inside and out. The external view, in addition to its distinctive architecture, features park-like landscaping that's both visually appealing and environmentally friendly. Inside, the design continues to capture the South Texas ambiance with festive colors and imaginative details.

Adding to the interior appeal is a $1 million collection of fine art produced by local and regional artists and funded by the Spurs ownership group under the direction of Chairman and CEO Peter Holt and Julianna Hawn Holt. Some of the collection carries a basketball theme -- including George Cisneros' sculpture of a huge spur with sequenced neon and LED lights.

"We are enormously proud of the SBC Center and what it brings to the community," said the Spurs' Holt. "We're proud to have been a part of the effort. Now we can provide South Texas with some of the best sports and entertainment available anywhere in the U.S."
